

the Origin of all beings"; and those who know the mud to be the origin of all mud-pots, cannot fail to see the mud in all pots. So too, the true children of the Hindu culture, who understand the Divine Principle as the "Source-of-all-beings," cannot but respect every other member of the society as they would respect themselves. There is no greater and more effective socialism ever preached in the world. If the present generation is not able to understand the appreciate this spiritual socialism, which is the only panacea for the ills of the world, the reason for it has been already given in the preceding stanza --- it is because of the predominance of the Asuric forces in it.

THE GREAT-SOULS "WORSHIP ME WITH THE SINGLE-POINTED MIND."... HOW?

14. Always glorifying Me, striving, firm in vows, prostrating before Me, and always steadfast, they worship Me with devotion.

Even though in the previous stanza, while describing the high-souls, (a) the "Path-of-Knowledge" was indicated, here the other two main "Paths" of self-integration and self-development are hinted at, viz., (b) single-pointed devotion and (c) selfless activity undertaken in the true Yajna-spirit.

GLORIFYING ME ALWAYS --- The grossest type of glorification is done usually by a noisy crowd singing the Lord's glories with the accompaniment of equally noisy
