

and soften the reactions of any disappointments that we might meet with in life's pilgrimage.

A truly educated man never forgets his education; it becomes part and parcel of his very nature and in every thought, word and action of his, he brings out the fragrance of his education. So, too, the man of constant Awareness will act in the world as a mastermind --- all his actions soaked in selflessness, all his thoughts flavoured with love, and all his feelings matured in kindness. This is the secret with which the Vedic civilisation enchanted the world of its time and compelled the adoration of all later generations.

Krishna is here quite clear when He says that, in the case of an individual who lives a life of battle to win righteous profits, and constantly remembers the Lord while doing so, his "MIND AND INTELLECT GET ABSORBED IN ME." Following the above (VIII-5, 6) theory of "as you think so you become," "YOU SHALL COME TO ME," when once the mental equipment gets absorbed in the Self, through the process of constant contemplation on the Self with single-pointed devotion.
